

Dana MATHEWSON, PLY

2X Paralympian, Wimbledon
Champion, Top-Ranked American
Woman in Wheelchair Tennis

A native of San Diego, CA, Dana Mathewson is a 2x Paralympian, Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Quarterfinalist, & 2022 Wimbledon Ladies' Doubles Champion. At the age of 10, Dana was diagnosed with Transverse Myelitis, which left her paralyzed from the waist down. At 13, she was introduced to wheelchair tennis and fell in love with the sport instantly. Dana has been a member of Team USA since 2009 and represented her country at several world championships as well as Rio 2016 & Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games. Dana is the first American woman wheelchair tennis player to win a Grand Slam title and is the first and only American woman to compete in the wheelchair tennis category of all Slams. Outside of tennis, Dana has always valued the importance of education and received her Bachelor's Degree from the University of Arizona where she played DI collegiate wheelchair tennis and recently earned her AuD Degree in Clinical Audiology. Dana recognizes the influence of her platform: She is a board member of the AAPI Tennis Association to help grow Asian-American participation in tennis and has been a volunteer coach at various tennis clinics, including the Veterans Hospital in San Diego and Angel City Games. She mentors several up-and-coming juniors on tour and volunteers at the USTA National Campus when possible. She is a dog mom and is getting married to her fiancé, Dristin, in December 2023. Paris 2024 will be her third Games.

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

"Dana is a phenomenal athlete with a fearless attitude driven by the energy of overcoming uncertainty, while challenging herself to think – and to deliver – outside (even the most unimaginable) of limits! She is a thought-provoking and inspirational speaker, who I've had the opportunity to engage in a variety of ways, and she has a profound manner of communicating her life-changing story through a captivating and authentic approach tailored to her audience...driven by her mantra to "chase butterflies" – her journey (and her dreams) continue to motivate others to endless bounds – she's only just begun!"
